Book Launch

Memory and Conflict in Lebanon

by Dr Craig Larkin
Lecturer in Comparative Politics of the Middle East

The event is to launch Dr Larkin’s recently published book Memory and Conflict in Lebanon (Routledge, 2012) which deals with the issues of transgenerational memory, trauma and violence in the aftermath of civil war. The evening will begin with a few introductory words by Professor Michael Kerr, a brief overview of the book by Dr Larkin, open questions, book signing and drinks reception.

18.30 Tuesday 2 October 2012
Council Room, King’s Building
Strand Campus, King’s College London

RSVP: craig.larkin@kcl.ac.uk