

Conflict in Cities Graduate Workshop

Thursday 25th November

CRASSH, 17 Mill Lane, Cambridge

18:00 – 19:00

Keynote Lecture: Stephen Graham

‘Cities as Battlespace: The New Military Urbanism’

Friday 26th November

Latimer Room, Clare College, Cambridge

09.00-09.15

Introduction

09.15-10.15

BERLIN

Two pasts and a present in the narratives of East Berliners

Linda Rootamm, Queens’s University Belfast

10.15-11.15

TRIPOLI

Taming the insurgent city: On the politics of time and territory in the reconstruction of a Palestinian refugee camp

Monika Halkort, Queens’s University Belfast

11.15-11.30

Coffee break

11.30-12.30

BEIRUT

The map is not the territory: Thinking public space through Beirut

Konstantin Kastrissianakis, Department of Architecture University of Cambridge

12.30-13.30

MOSTAR

I ♥ Mostar: Sensibilities of daily drifting

Giulia Carabelli, Department of Sociology, Queens University Belfast

14.30-15.30

BRUSSELS

Active representation within the power-sharing society: The values guiding administrative decision-making in Belfast and Brussels

Karl O’Connor, Department of Politics, University of Exeter

15.30-16.30

NICOSIA

The Cyprus conflict and Nicosia’s walled city as a site of memory and oblivion

Anita Bakshi, Department of Architecture, University of Cambridge

16.30-16.45

Coffee break

16.45-17.15

Commemorative events in conflicted cities: the limits of solidarity

Brendan Browne, Department of Sociology, Queen’s University Belfast

17.15-18.30

Reflection