

CRASSH – Centre for Research in the Arts Social Sciences and Humanities
University of Cambridge
8-10 January 2004

Programme

Thursday 8 January

Evening                      Arrival of delegates
7.30                              Dinner at CRASSH

Friday 9 January
CRASSH seminar room

9.15                              Welcome - Wendy Pullan
9.30                              Introducing delegates and participants

Session 1 ‘Conflict in Cities’

Chair: Mick Dumper

10.00                              Introduction to ‘Conflict in Cities: Architecture and Urban Order in Divided Jerusalem’ - Wendy Pullan
10.30                              Presentation of ‘Urbanisation of Jerusalem’ – Rami
Nasrallah and Haim Yacobi
Discussion
11.15                              coffee
11.45                              Presentation of Jerusalem pilot project. Microstudy 1:
‘Damascus Gate’ – Phil Misselwitz
Discussion
1.15                              lunch

Session 2 Middle East

Chair: James Anderson

- 2.15 Paper 1 and discussion – Salim Tamari: ‘Autobiographic literature as a window to the early modernity of Jerusalem’
- 3.00 Paper 2 and discussion - Mick Dumper : ‘The constraints and opportunities of holiness: Jerusalem as a case study’
- 3.45 tea
- 4.15 Paper 3 and discussion – Anthony Coon: ‘Negotiating the Future of Jerusalem: Options for an Open City’
- 5.00 Paper 4 and discussion - Oren Yiftachel: ‘Control, Conflict and Informality: Urban Ethnocracy in Beer-Sheva, Israel’
- 7.15
for 7.45 Dinner in the Small Hall, Clare College

Saturday 10 January CRASSH seminar room

Session 3 Europe

Chair: Wendy Pullan

- 9.30 Paper 5 and discussion - Glenn Bowman: ‘Policies and Practices of Alterity and Identity in the Mixed Cities of Bosnia-Herzegovina and Israel-Palestine’
- 10.15 Paper 6 and discussion - Lefkos Kyriacou: ‘Nicosia: Topography of Conflict’
- 11.00 coffee
- 11.30 Paper 7 and discussion - James Anderson: ‘Trying to take the terror out of territoriality: connections and comparisons’
- 12.15 Paper 8 and discussion - Ulf Matthiesen: ‘An example of a German-Polish border town’
- 1.00 lunch

Session 4 Round Table Discussion

For all participants

- 2:15            The Jerusalem project and related studies
- opening comments by Mick Dumper and Wendy Pullan
  - common threads and divergences
  - future directions
- 3:30            tea
- 4:00            Discussion continues - Jerusalem project
- advice and future directions
  - moving beyond the pilot project
- 5:00            end

